Property Careers is unique. Here's how it works.

1. Information Webinar

We'll start with a free introductory webinar with the LIST n' Sell guru, Mark Dwyer, who will run you through the "what's involved" and the sort of person our affiliate Real Estate Agencies are looking for. We only work with the best and we know how important it is to get the "fit" just right.

2. Bootcamp

On our two-day weekend Bootcamp, you'll receive intensive training in prospecting, listing and selling real estate. We'll arm you with the knowledge and techniques to get your new career in real estate sales off to a flying start. You'll also receive the complete Sales Trainer Audio program on 6 CD's and 6 months' membership in Sales Trainer Active, the web-based resource and support site that ensures you are never out of touch. And the great news is, you get unlimited access to our monthly Bootcamp. Pay for the first one and the rest are free.

3. Approved

On completion of the Bootcamp you will receive an industry-recognised Property Careers/Sales Trainer certificate of proficiency in practical sales skills.

4. Job Interviews, Support and Job Placement

Our affiliated Real Estate Agencies are always looking for great sales people and they get them from us. We work with you personally to arrange job interviews, assist further in refining your resume and provide comprehensive interview training. Each stage is progressed on the merit of your suitability to the profession. We have a network of Real Estate Agencies throughout Australia and New Zealand that are waiting to employ people like you - certified, trained and ready. Whilst we cannot guarantee that you will be placed in a position or your success, Property Careers will give you every possible chance enhancing and optimising your potential for a career in real estate. Not ready for sales? We have P.A. positions too!

5. On the Job Training and Support

Here's the thing; Real Estate Agencies are a hive of activity - busy, busy, busy. Principals love Property Careers as they don't have the time to train and support new sales agents. Once placed, we enrol you in our 90 day on the job support and sales success training program to get you learning and earning in the first three months.

6. Who Should Attend?

Everyone. It's never too early or too late. If you are just starting on your real estate journey or have hit a bump in the road; if you already have a job and want to operate effectively within your new sales team or you could be looking for a job in real estate and don't know where to start. We're here to help.
